Lomita Garden Unit Hears Message on 'Shade Plants'

Mrs. J. W. Jensen of Bellflower was guest speaker at the meeting of the Lomita Fuchsia and Garden Society on Sept. 16 at the American Legion Hall, 24702 Narbonne Ave. She spoke on the care and planting of shade plants that were damaged during the recent heat wave. Feeding should take place after the new growth has started and brown fronds are not to be cut off as they are store food for next year's growth. Over-watering of shade plants during heat is dangerous.

C. O. Eipper, president, announced that Mrs. A. Elorriaga will serve as librarian; Mrs. Jack McKinney, sunshine chairman; and Kermit Gluth will be in charge of tickets and courtesy box.

Mrs. Joseph Gilpin led the group in singing old favorites. A plant exchange was held and refreshments were served by Mrs. John Slaughter.

A preview of the many items to be on sale at the Bargain Festival Friday, Nov. 18, showed that many gifts will be available for Christmas shoppers. Hours will be from 11 a.m. until 8 p.m. The snack bar will be open to serve food all day.

Executive board will be guest of Mrs. E. D. Shureg, 2450 251st St., on Oct. 19 at 7:30 p.m. Next regular meeting of the society is set for Oct. 21 at 8 at the American Legion Hall.

Rebekahs to Institute Lodge Here

Mrs. Winifred Brase, president of the Torrance Rebekah Club, conducted the club meeting at the Masonic Temple on Sept. 14 when forty-five members were present.

Final plans were made for the card party on Sept. 28. Further plans were also made for instituting a Rebekah lodge in Torrance. Anyone interested may secure further information by calling Mrs. F. A. Isbell of Torrance or Mrs. W. G. Powers of Lomita.

During the social hour refreshments were served by the brothers of the club.

The next meeting will be held Wednesday, Oct. 12 at 8 p.m. A group of members of the Torrance Rebekah club met at the home of Mrs. Irma Powers recently to install newly elected officers for their new social club which will be known as Fun and Fund.

Officers are Mrs. Madeline Hand, president; Mrs. Belva Brase, vice president; Mrs. Maud Milburn, secretary; Mrs. Rita Nelson, treasurer; and Mrs. Ellen Smith, chaplain.

Mrs. Hand appointed Mrs. Clara Woodson, ways and means chairman, and Mrs. Irma Powers, publicity.

The next meeting will be an evening affair on Oct. 10 at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Winifred Brases.

Constitution Is Topic

Republicans Unlimited, a local group of independent citizens dedicated to the preservation of American independence, presented Dr. William V. Lawlor at the meeting Wednesday evening at the Knights of Columbus Hall, Redondo Beach.

Since Constitution Week was observed from Sept. 17 to 24, it was most fitting that the speaker chose as his topic, "The Constitution, National and International." Dr. Lawlor is a well known authority on Constitutional government and has made innumerable talks on this important document throughout Southern California.

As part of the Republicans Unlimited program, three by five foot flags complete with staff and wall bracket were available at the meeting. All residents and business firms are urged to fly Old Glory.

Coffee and dessert were served.

LOCAL PTA ACTIVITIES

CRENSHAW 259th Place

First regular meeting of Crenshaw Elementary PTA will be Wednesday, Oct. 5, at 7:30 p.m., in the school cafeteria. The membership drive kick-off will be official at this time when Mrs. Dane Walker, membership chairman, welcomes all new members for the year.

A brief skit planned by magazine chairman, Mrs. Don Robinson and Mrs. Myron Spaulding is a program feature.

The Bloodmobile will be in Torrance on Oct. 10th, and members will have an opportunity to sign up as a PTA donor at the association meeting.

A First Aid class begins today at Crenshaw school and continues on Mondays and Thursdays until Oct. 24. First Aid procedures are invaluable to all parents as well as Youth Organization leaders. Anyone is welcome to take advantage of the opportunity to take the course.

Evelyn Carr

Amid a setting of hearts and flowers, the Evelyn Carr PTA held its second annual pink tea for new teachers in the gardens at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Allison on Sept. 21 from 10 until 2 p.m.

Board members serving as hostesses, were Mrs. H. Cortez, J. Jensen, N. Hale, S. Warden, R. Thomas, J. R. Sanders, J. R. Spill, D. Mangiagli, P. Baker, W. Towell, T. Kelly, R. Gastelium, R. Hubert, R. McDonald, R. Stamm, and co-chairmen, Mmes. William Sale and J. R. Allison.

The decor of hearts and flowers was carried out in the name tags, gay umbrellas in lace and pink ribbon were given each guest by a hostess.

The table was draped in pink tulle caught up with nosegays and the centerpiece was a garden umbrella in pink tulle with flowers and hearts on streamers.

Pink heart shaped sandwiches, pink heart cookies and pink punch were served. Guests received prizes from a grab bag. Proceeds were earmarked for the Country Fair.

NORTH TORRANCE

Teachers of the North Torrance Elementary School were welcomed by the members of the executive board at the North Torrance Elementary PTA at a luncheon held at the school on Sept. 12. Symbolizing the theme of building together for the school year, were the centerpieces representing trees, with miniature tools placed down the tables. The decorative table pieces and plans for the luncheon were the work of the hospitality chairman, Mrs. B. Peters, aided by her committee of Mrs. G. Wood, Mrs. C. Sparling, Mrs. J. Begando and Mrs. C. Sewell.

Following the luncheon Mrs. Robert Payne, PTA president, welcomed the teachers and school staff, and introduced the PTA officers and committee chairmen.

"Both secondary school administrators and the PTA have become increasingly aware of the importance of better understanding and cooperation between school and parents of teenagers," said Mrs. Ray Neely, Torrance High School PTA Membership Chairman. "This year," she added "we are making a concerted effort to improve this cooperation between home and school and we feel that membership in PTA is an important factor toward this goal."

Membership enrollment in Torrance High School PTA begins October 3 and continues through October 14. Letters of invitation and membership envelopes will be sent home with students on Monday October 3.

Membership cards and the year's program will be mailed to all membership following the close of enrollment.

The first Association meeting will be held Oct. 11 in the High School Cafeteria.
